

The Tuskegee Airmen Share their Story at SMRP

The SMRP Diversity Committee invites you to participate in a rare opportunity. We've invited the Tuskegee Airmen to join us in Cleveland, OH at the SMRP 16th Annual Conference. They will share their remarkable story of conquering discrimination and adversity while battling for the right to defend freedom.

The Tuskegee Airmen were a self contained group of pilots, avionics and weapons specialists, as well as a team of equipment maintenance and reliability specialists, based on Tuskegee, Alabama. These brave Airmen simply wanted to join the military during World War II and help make a difference. Their enduring spirit will open your eyes as you hear of their unwavering commitment to defend America's Freedom. They conquered many setbacks in their journey, and once they won the right to protect Freedom, they proved their battle was worth the fight.

We invite you to join SMRP and make a contribution to this rewarding presentation. The contribution fees will cover the expenses of the Airmen, while any, and all, additional funds will be awarded to the Tuskegee Airmen Foundation (<http://tuskegeeairmen.org>). Contributions of $250 or more will receive recognition on the special events page (http://www.smrp.org/Conference/2008/special_events.html) of the SMRP conference website and signage with company logo at the event.

This is a unique opportunity to hear (first-hand) the stories of American's that shaped history, so don't miss out on the opportunity to make a contribution to these remarkable heroes.

Thank you for your support,
